ROCKVILLE AND COUNTY

Canvass of Vote Cast Tuesday Shows No Material Change in Announced Results.

Special Correspondence of The Star. ROCKVILLE, Md., November 10.—William H. Griffith, Laurance B. Ricks and Thomas W. T. Wilson, composing the board of supervisors of elections for Montgomery county, met here yesterday afternoon, and after organizing as a board of canvassers by electing Mr. Griffith chairman and Mr. Wilson secretary, canvassed the vote cast at Tuesday's election in this county.

The official count did not change materially the figures originally announced. President Wilson's official majority in the county was 914. Lewis A. Moore, for United States senator, received 735 more votes than his republican opponent, Dr. Francis and E. H. Johnson, democratic candidate for Congress, carried the county over his republican opponent, Zihlman, by a majority of 335.

The proposed amendment to the constitution of the state, which provides for the budget system of making state appropriations, received a majority in the county of 1,379, the vote standing 1,554 to 275. The presence of a very large assembly of delegates, Miss Carrie Wheeler Williams of Poolesville, Md., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Williams, and Edwin R. Albright, Jr., of Poolesville, Md., were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. M. J. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist Church at Poolesville, officiating.

Complete District Vote. Complete returns from the eighth congressional district, which were received in Alexandria last night, show that Representative Charles C. Carlin, democratic, has a majority over Joseph L. Crupper, republican nominee for Congress, of 5,734, this being one of the largest majorities ever accorded a democratic nominee in this district.

Mr. Carlin ran on the ticket with Mr. Crupper by 267 votes in this district, and Mr. Crupper was five votes behind Mr. Hughes, President Wilson received 5,894 to 2,422 for Hughes, or a majority of 3,472, and Representative Carlin's vote was 9,561, against Crupper's 3,427. The total vote of the district follows: Alexandria—city—Wilson, 1,028; Hughes, 264; Carlin, 1,014; Crupper, 428. Alexandria—county—Wilson, 448; Hughes, 351; Carlin, 622; Crupper, 269. Carlin, 1,422; Crupper, 441. Prince William—Wilson, 760; Hughes, 189; Carlin, 771; Crupper, 185. Culpeper—Wilson, 550; Hughes, 184; Carlin, 525; Crupper, 144. Fauquier—Wilson, 1,132; Hughes, 257; Carlin, 1,174; Crupper, 264. Orange—Wilson, 708; Hughes, 153; Carlin, 641; Crupper, 164. Loudoun—Wilson, 708; Hughes, 232; Carlin, 693; Crupper, 267. Stafford—Wilson, 428; Hughes, 428; Carlin, 470; Crupper, 415. King George—Wilson, 222; Hughes, 217; Carlin, 241; Crupper, 218.

Masons Attend Banquet.

Two hundred and thirty-two Masons, including the 115 members of Elkins Lodge of Philadelphia, last night attended the banquet given in the Westminster building by the Elkins Lodge, in honor of the members of William L. Elkins Lodge, No. 646, of Philadelphia.

C. Page Waller, worshipful master, presided. Invocation was delivered by Rev. John Lee Allison, chaplain, and greetings extended by Henry K. Field, deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge of the state to which a response was made by Marderos S. Goolyan, worshipful master of Elkins Lodge, Charles H. Callahan, past master of the local lodge, delivered an address on "Washington."

The visitors left Alexandria on a special electric train at 11:30 o'clock for Washington. The banquet was served by the women who were in charge of the recent Masonic bazaar, and Elkins Lodge gave $25 to the Westminster building before departing as a token of its interest in the building.

The musical and literary entertainment of last night at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall was attended by a capacity audience. George H. O'Connor, of Washington, gave a number of character songs and was heartily applauded. Other participants included Miss Virginia Downie, Miss Bessie B. B. Mrs. Harrie White, Miss Emma Hubbard and A. G. Hopkins. Miss Ella Hill was accompanied by the dramatic club of St. Mary's.

The affair was under the auspices of Miss Natalie Leitch and Miss Ella Hill. Selections were given by the Holy Name Band.

City Loses Tax Test Suit. The supreme court of the state in Richmond yesterday refused to grant to the city council of Alexandria a writ of error to the judgment of the corporation court of this city which allowed David G. Grillbort a perpetual injunction restraining the enforcement of the city's claims for taxes on property owned by Grillbort and annexed by the city two months before the assessment of the property for the current fiscal year. This was a test suit by the city in order to ascertain its status relative to the collection of taxes on the property.

The week of prayer services of the Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. church in Alexandria, which began last evening with "quiet hour" service at 3 o'clock in that church.

John Ferguson, who on Monday was held in the police court for the action of the grand jury for an alleged violation of the state prohibition law, was released today on bail for $100 for his appearance in court.

Election Bets Are Paid. Several thousand dollars changed hands in this city today on the outcome of the election. The betting was for those who had bet on Hughes and early this morning the stakeholders started the work of paying off bets they held. Several Alexandrians who had put their money on Wilson drew down large sums. Several who made a number of wagers cashed in sums in excess of $1,000.

The Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall, on Duke street between Royal and Fairfax streets, which has just been remodeled, was opened for the first time last night since the improvements have been made. It now is one of the most attractive buildings of its character in the city.

The Men's Club of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will give an oyster supper tonight in the Young Men's building. All are invited to attend. The affair will be free.

Raft of Piles Arrives. Towing a raft of about 200 pine piles, the tug Capt. Toby of the Taylor fleet arrived in the Eastern branch yesterday from Occoquan. The piles, which vary in length from 25 to 40 feet, are to be used in the building of bulkheads along the channel line and in other improvements work on the Eastern branch. Since the work in the branch started this year many thousands of piles have been used in bulkhead building and other work, and many more will be taken there from Occoquan and other points along the river before the work is completed.

Deaths Reported. The following deaths have been reported to the health department in the last twenty-four hours: Annie L. Smoot, 47 years, 1359 Fairmont street northwest. Bridget T. Boland, 62 years, 2 S Street northeast. Mary F. Johnson, 53 years, 217A Morgan street northwest. Joseph Metz, 48 years, Georgetown University Hospital. Mary A.
